Alchemia

Alchemia draws a more bohemian crowd, and is always packed. If you want to meet people who actually reside in Krakow this would be an excellent choice.

The décor is neat, in that it the several rooms that comprise the club are filled with old paintings and antique furniture, and without rhyme or reason.

Still, there is a definite charm to the eclectic feel of the place, and it is excusable when there are so many interesting people packed in one place.

If you are sensitive to smoke, you'll be dealing with both heavy cigarette smoke and candies that are placed all over.

Harris Jazz Bar

Address:	Rynek Główny 28
Area:	Old Town
Type:	Bar
Phone:	12 421 57 41
Website:	www.harris.krakow.pl/
Rating:	5 ★★★★★

Harris Piano Jazz Bar is exactly that, a good old nook where people come to get lost in some great jazz tunes and drown their worries in strong drinks.

Sometimes the music is on piano as the name would indicate, and sometimes it is on a whole array of musical instruments.

It is one of the only clubs in Poland, and in all of Europe where authorial jazz is played every single day.

All types of jazz are featured here, from Latin, to Blues, to more modern minimal and electric style. The website has weekly schedules available in English.
